Technical Support on Research Grants

This document outlines the processofr requesting technical support for research from Technical Serviceson Research Council and other grants

On research council grants, there are a number of ways to include technical support.

a) Infrastructure technician costs

These costs are applied to all labased projects on research council grants and these are actually part

©University of Reading2017 Friday 20 January 2017 Page1